We had not then learned that the Journal's character for truth and veracity had been very seriously impaired by recent occurrences in the State Senate. We supposed that we had to stand the charge of such a weight of moral character, of so much sobriety, continence, virtue and purity, indeed of all kinds, of so much elegant and refined gentlemanship, that we, at once, began to quake with dread. WHISKIES. FINHIS ENTERPRISING COMPANY, IN A LITTLE over six years, has issued over 13,000 Policies and paid near $200,000 in Lokess. It is prompt in all its business transactions, paying its losses as chearfully as it receives the premiums on its policies, departing in no respect from the general principles upon which all the great Mutual Life Insurance of America have based their success. It claims the advantages of increased rates of interest on its investments, over Eastern Companies; and, also, a less rate of mortality than is experienced in the East—two very important items to consider in the selection of a Life Insurance Company.
